

Dispatches from the Bunker

Dispatch # 42

For ASL Players Everywhere
From ASL Veterans in New England

In this Latest Issue

Greetings from the Bunker: In this new PDF issue we have four new action-packed scenarios for your ASL enjoyment. Kedge has another article on game play and Carl Nogueira continues his always informative Tactical Tips. Chuck Tewksbury has a preview of the Tussle in the Tundra Tourney. I'll have the Nor'easter preview along with reviews of the Bunker Bash and Albany Tournament along with all our usual features.

Grand Hotel Britannia: The assault by the Royal Scots at Vlissingen on Walcheren Island had proceeded from the docks to the Grand Hotel Britannia at the edge of the city proper. Can they take the nerve center of the German defense?

Unnoticed Victory: While the main event raged on Wake Island, the defenders on adjacent Wilkes Island, led by Captain Wesley Platt, launched a counterattack against the Japanese. Can the Marines wrest the 3-inch gun battery from them?

Silencing Sinzig: The task force of CCB 9th Armored Division, led by Lt. Colonel Bill Prince, has the objective of capturing the bridge at Sinzig intact and establishing a bridgehead across the Ahr River. Can they achieve the mission?

Tigers and Flames: The unrelenting pressure applied by the 2nd Ukrainian Front had finally collapsed the defense of the 16th Panzergrenadier Division at Ljubimowka. Can the Tiger tanks and infantry of Grossdeutschland save the day?
